English 177 English for Academic Purposes

A course of special value for students whose first language is not English

Course Features:

- Available in a variety of delivery modes—by homestudy, by classroom seminar—and in some cases, through partnership with other institutions;
- Uses a content-based approach to improve writing, listening, and speaking skills for students who experience special difficulty with English, but who otherwise demonstrate the potential to succeed in undergraduate or graduate programs in North America;
- Integrates grammar and various learning strategies, such as note-taking, and with the aid of video taped lectures, provides an introduction to North American academic classrooms and lecture halls.
