CITY ON THE EDGE

HONG KONG UNDER CHINESE RULE

HO-FUNG HUNG

A provocative contribution to the discussion on Hong Kong's position in today's world, City on the Edge demonstrates that the resistance and repression of 2019-2020 does not spell the end of Hong Kong but the beginning of a long conflict with global repercussions.

“ At a time when many of Hong Kong's freedoms seem to have been extinguished, Ho-fung Hung brings historical knowledge and a deft analysis of capital to show that the desire for liberal values in the city is by no means dead and that a new more hopeful phase for Hong Kong may yet emerge. ”

TANG CENTER FOR EARLY CHINA

唐氏早期中國研究中心

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

The Tang Center for Early China at Columbia University was founded in 2015 through a generous endowment gift from Oscar Tang and Agnes Hsu-Tang. The Tang Center is dedicated to the advancement of the understanding of the richness and importance of early Chinese civilization as a part of a broader common human heritage. It is committed to doing so through both solid scholarship and broad public outreach. The Tang Center sponsors a variety of conferences, workshops as well as public lectures each year including the Columbia Early China Seminar. The Tang Center is especially interested in supporting research initiatives that aim to examine newly discovered paleographic and textual material as well as artifacts, and in promoting the role of archaeology as a path to understand the past.

Call for Manuscripts

Tang Center Series in Early China

Sponsored by the Tang Center and published by Columbia University Press, the "Tang Center Series in Early China" includes new studies that make major contributions to our understanding of early Chinese civilization or that which break new theoretical or methodological grounds in Early China studies. The series is especially interested in publishing works that analyze newly discovered paleographic and manuscript materials as well as archaeological data. Disciplinary focuses of the series are history, archaeology, art history, anthropology, literature, philosophy, and the history of sciences and technology. The series spans from the Neolithic period to the end of the Han Dynasty (AD 220), or to the end of the Tang Dynasty (AD 907) for titles in archaeology. All submissions are subject to peer reviews and editorial evaluation. For more information, please see: <http://tangcenter-columbia.org/publications/>. Interested authors should submit a book proposal (maximum 25 manuscript pages), accompanied by CV, to: info@tangcenter-columbia.org.

Call for Applications

The Tang Post-Doctoral Research Award in Early China Studies

The Tang Center for Early China offers one Post-Doctoral Research Award in the amount of $15,000 each year in recognition of outstanding research projects in early Chinese civilization or in archaeology.

The Tang Visiting Scholar's Fellowship

The Tang Center offers Visiting Scholar's Fellowship each year to one scholar for an in-residence research period of 10 months at Columbia University. The applicant must be non-US based.

Workshop and Conference Grants

The Tang Center offers grants for up to two workshop and/or conference proposals each academic year, depending on the scale. Each workshop or conference should have an identified central problem or theme on which the papers will focus. Alternatively, the workshop/conference can be centered on a newly discovered corpus of materials or manuscripts, or on an important archaeological site, or a region. Budgets for workshops and/or conferences should not exceed $20,000.

Application deadline, November 30, for all programs.

For more information, please visit our website www.tangcenter-columbia.org.

Questions directed to: info@tangcenter-columbia.org; or by phone: 212.854.5546.

Education About Asia (EAA), published by the Association for Asian Studies, is a unique and fascinating resource for teachers, students, and all those with an interest in Asia. Articles and reviews in EAA cover a wide range of topics and time periods— from ancient to modern history, language, geography, religion, youth culture, and much more.

EAA was first published in 1996 and appears three times a year. It will greatly enhance your understanding and knowledge of this important region of the world.

With each issue, you will enjoy:

- Stimulating articles on all areas of Asia, with subjects ranging from ancient cultures and literatures to current events.
- Educational teaching resources for classroom use.
- A comprehensive guide to Asia-related print and digital resources—movies and documentaries, books, curriculum guides, and a wide variety of web resources.
- Most issues include a special section on a topic of particular interest to secondary school, undergraduate, and middle school instructors, as well as essays and teaching resource-related articles that focus upon other important Asia-related subjects.

THE JOURNAL OF ASIAN STUDIES

The Journal of Asian Studies (JAS) has played a defining role in the field of Asian studies for 80 years. JAS publishes the very best empirical and multidisciplinary work on Asia, spanning the arts, history, literature, the social sciences, and cultural studies. Experts around the world turn to this quarterly journal for the latest in-depth scholarship on Asia's past and present, for its extensive book reviews, and for its state-of-the-field essays on established and emerging topics. With coverage reaching from South and Southeast Asia to China, Inner Asia, and Northeast Asia, JAS welcomes broad comparative and transnational studies as well as essays emanating from fine-grained historical, cultural, political, and literary research. The journal also publishes clusters of papers that present new and vibrant discussions on specific themes and issues.
