

8. CONCLUSION.

I must ask to be excused for colloquial, hurried and perhaps careless writing. But I do not apologize at all for dealing with subjects outside the field of institutional or clinic psychiatry. Part of the psychiatrist's job is to avoid confining his interests to "shop." He must be wise at least a little, and wisdom was never built on technicalities. I hope to persuade at least a few psychiatrists to go abroad who might otherwise not do so.

For letters of introduction and practical suggestions which helped me to make most use of my time, I wish to thank Dr. J. R. Lord, Dr. Norman Haire, Mr. Stephen Jones of the Phonetics Department, University College, Mrs. Welfare of the Central Association for Mental Welfare, and Mr. Tricker of the Budokwai Ju-jitsu Club.
