Obituary.

The late Sir Charles Hastings, M.D., D.C.L., Oxon.

At the first General Meeting for 1866 of the British Medical Association, held at Chester, the following resolution moved by Dr. Jeaffreson, the retiring President, and seconded by Mr. Carden, of Worcester, was unanimously adopted :

"That the British Medical Association, assembled at the general meeting at Chester, desires to express its deep sorrow at the loss the Association has sustained in the death of its much-loved and highly esteemed founder, President of Council, and Treasurer, Sir Charles Hastings, who, from the period of its establishment to the present time, has, with singular courtesy and fidelity, exerted his highest powers for the promotion of the best interests of the Association; and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the President to the family of the late Sir Charles Hastings, with the condolence of the Association on the bereavement they have sustained."

We cordially concur in the above resolution. Sir Charles Hastings was President of the Medico-Psychological Association in 1859, and he took great interest in the advancement of Mental Psychology.

The late Right Reverend Bishop Willson.

The late Bishop Willson, of Hobart Town, an honorary member of the Medico-Psychological Association since its foundation, died at Nottingham on the 30th June last, aged 71. He was consecrated Roman Catholic Bishop of
