Editing Eden

A Reconsideration of Identity, Politics, and Place in Amazonia

EDITED BY FRANK HUTCHINS
AND PATRICK C. WILSON

Recent scholarship on the Amazon has challenged depictions of the region that emphasize its natural exuberance or represent its residents as historically isolated peoples stoically resisting challenges from powerful global forces. Editing Eden focuses on case studies from Amazonian Brazil, Colombia, and Ecuador regarding the themes of indigeneity, community making, development politics, and the transcendence of indigenous/nonindigenous divides.
