

GROTIUS FROM CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press is pleased to announce its acquisition of Grotius Publications, Lmtd., a leading publisher in the field of international law. All Grotius Publications are available from Cambridge University Press worldwide.

The Abolition of the Death Penalty in International Law

William A. Schabas

This book traces the emergence and progressive evolution of international legal norms through an examination of the relevant conventions of both regional and universal application as well as the specific humanitarian agreements. The work explores the different limitations that international law has placed on the imposition of the death penalty: restricting its scope to serious crimes, and the prohibition of its application in the case of pregnant women, juveniles, the elderly and the insane.

46303-3 Hardcover $96.00

The Iran-Iraq War (1980–1988) and the Law of Naval Warfare

A Collection of Documents and Related Commentaries on Naval Practice

Andrea de Guttry and Natalino Ronzitti, Editors

This is the first comprehensive collection of materials, many previously unpublished, on the wider naval aspects of the Iran-Iraq conflict and the dispatch of Western fleets to the Gulf. Over 200 documents are systematically presented relating to the naval practice of Iran and Iraq and the various Western States involved.

46302-5 Hardcover $190.00

International Boundary Cases: The Continental Shelf

Volumes I and II

Michael Wallace

In recent years disputes about continental shelf boundaries have given rise to an important body of international case law. The collection will be of value to negotiators of boundary settlements, international judges and arbitrators, practitioners in international litigation and all who are interested in international dispute settlements by judicial means and in the law of the sea. Each case is preceded by a helpful summary. The collection has an Introduction by Michael Wallace.

Desk and Library References

Case Law On UNCITRAL Texts (CLOUT)

This compilation represents the first in a series using the "Model Laws, Arbitration Rules and Conciliation Rules" of UNCITRAL. These rules are used in many courts and arbitration chambers worldwide inevitably producing uniformity in interpretation and application. CLOUT brings a summary of the many court cases and arbitration decisions taken, utilizing the United Nations legal instruments. Judges, arbitrators, lawyers and parties to commercial transactions among others will find the case summaries and legal instruments beneficial and useable.

CLOUT Abstracts 1 & 2 and User Guide $7.50

UNCITRAL Legal Guide on International Countertrade Transactions

Lawyers, business enterprises and everyone involved with drawing up contracts and negotiating international countertrade transactions will find this guide to be their ultimate desk reference. It makes the complexity of "countertrade transactions" at various levels simple and fills the gap where national laws do not contain specific provisions. Apart from the focus on drawing up contractual clauses, it discusses those clauses that are essential for establishing a countertrade transaction and possible contracting approaches to its structuring. The guide is further enhanced with the suggestions offered as to how certain issues might be settle.

Treaty Series

Every treaty and international agreement entered into by Member States of the United Nations is meticulously registered and documented. The Treaty Series puts information at your finger tips on such issues as: border disputes, nuclear weapons, pollution by dumping, transit of prisoners, travel of law-enforcement officials, maritime navigation and merchant shipping. It also offers details on ratifications, accessions and prorogations concerning treaties and international agreements.

A must for every library and legal office.
E/F Treaty Series $25.00 per volume

Cumulative Index 1981-1990

With over 12,000 entries, this ten-year index to the AJIL is thorough and highly specific in its coverage. The Table of Cases pinpoints the location of over 800 cases that have been discussed over the course of a decade in the AJIL. The Subject Index displays headings in bold-faced print, in addition to alphabetically listing the title of articles and the names of authors.

In this age of computerized research, the Cumulative Index is also a useful companion to researchers conducting online searches of some 10,000 pages on either LEXIS® or WESTLAW®.

For all concerned with international law and international relations, the new Cumulative Index is unquestionably an indispensable and authoritative resource.

RECONCEIVING REALITY: WOMEN AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

Dorinda G. Dallmeyer, Editor

This study provides in-depth coverage of feminist analysis of international law, the public/private distinction in law and its impact on women's issues, and feminist approaches to issues of war and peace—including extensive discussion of war crimes against women. It reflects the papers and views presented at a special program organized by the Women in International Law Interest Group for the Society's 1993 Annual Meeting.

Teaching International Law in the 1990s

By John King Gamble

This study sheds light on what is taught, how it is taught and how successfully, and the nature and attitudes of the international law professorate of the early 1990s. The result of the most thorough survey ever undertaken of international law teaching, it includes information from professors, deans and department heads responsible for teaching or administering international law programs.

... a must for those who want to teach effectively or administer international law courses today!

Please send me _____ copies of Teaching International Law in the 1990s at $15 each.*
