THE UNITED NATIONS DISARMAMENT YEARBOOK 1976

This first volume of the United Nations Disarmament Yearbook, prepared by the United Nations Centre for Disarmament, gives an account of developments in the field of disarmament, within and outside the United Nations, during the year 1976. It also includes a brief history of various subjects. The primary aim is to supply up-to-date, comprehensive and detailed information to those who deal professionally with disarmament issues. At the same time, an effort has been made to present the material in a form that will make it available and useful to the general public.
