ASSOCIATION OF PSYCHIATRISTS
IN AFRICA

DEAR SIR,

At a meeting of the delegates attending the Pan African Psychiatric Workshop held in Mauritius from 22 to 26 June, 1970 on 'Mental Health of Children in Developing Countries', the Constitution of an 'Association of Psychiatrists in Africa' was adopted. The following members were elected to the Executive Committee of the Association for the next five years:

President:	Dr. T. Asuni (Nigeria)
Vice-President:	Dr. B. Diop (Senegal)
Secretary General:	Dr. A. C. Raman (Mauritius)
Associate Secretaries:	Prof. Allen German (Uganda) Prof. H. Collomb (Senegal)
Treasurer:	Dr. J. Wiche (Mauritius)

The Statutes of the Association provide for the admission of Corresponding Members. Corresponding Members are psychiatrists or workers in related disciplines, who may or may not have worked in Africa, but who are interested in mental health in Africa.

Corresponding members do not pay subscriptions but may subscribe donations to the Association.

The Association therefore invites all those who wish to become Corresponding Members of the Association to write to the Secretariat at the address below.

A. C. RAMAN,
Secretary General.
