THE INTERMEDIARIES
Third Parties in International Crises

BY ORAN R. YOUNG

The author develops a theory of third-party intervention aimed at facilitating the non-violent termination of international crises, and then presents a set of applications focusing on the Secretary-General of the U. N. and a variety of potential Soviet-American crises. Though the United Nations is given special attention in the section on applications, most of the discussion is relevant to a wide range of contexts. 439 pages. $10.00

AFFLUENCE AND THE FRENCH WORKER
IN THE FOURTH REPUBLIC

BY RICHARD F. HAMILTON

The basic concern of the author is to find the reason for the persistent leftist character of French working-class politics in a period of rapid industrialization and improving living standards. Reanalyzing material from surveys made by two French organizations, he finds that increased affluence is correlated with changes in social structure that increase radicalism.
