The Politics of Power: Freeport in Suharto's Indonesia

DENISE LEITH

USD$23.00, PAPER

"After Enron and Worldcom, a new name may soon be added to the list of scandals that are currently engulfing corporate America—Freeport-McMoRan. . . . In this remarkable and hard-hitting book, Denise Leith has described in vivid detail the way in which the interests of the native West Papuans and their environment have been sacrificed to the greed and ruthlessness of Western capital and a genocidal Third World military. . . . this book is required reading."

—Peter Carey, Trinity College, University of Oxford

Diem's Final Failure Prelude to America's War in Vietnam

Philip E. Catton

"A fresh and provocative look at a neglected but crucial period during the Vietnam War. Catton's penetrating study explodes the contrasting portrayals of Ngo Dinh Diem as villain or savior to present a more nuanced view of one of the war's most tragic figures."—William J. Duiker, author of Ho Chi Minh: A Life

Modern War Studies

280 pages, 20 photographs, Cloth $34.95

Decent Interval

An Insider's Account of Saigon's Indecent End Told by the CIA's Chief Strategy Analyst in Vietnam
Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Edition

Frank Snepp

With a new foreword by Gloria Emerson

"A great service to everyone's understanding of what happened in Vietnam in the spring of 1975. . . . Other accounts of that time will have to be measured against what Snepp, from his unique and highly informed vantage point, has produced."

—Kevin Buckley, New York Times Book Review

636 pages, 35 photographs, Paper $24.95

The Vietnam War on Trial

The My Lai Massacre and the Court-Martial of Lieutenant Calley

Michal R. Belknap

"A wise, discerning, and powerful account of a notable trial that illuminates the larger meaning of the Vietnam War. Belknap's extraordinary analysis of the My Lai story skillfully explores the atrocities, the cover-up, and the political manipulation of the affair, and takes us beyond contemporary journalism to the complex history of what happened—and why."—Stanley Kutler, author of The Wars of Watergate

Landmark Law Cases and American Society

272 pages, Cloth $35.00, Paper $15.95
