The Thomas Newcomen
$1,000 Award in
Business History
Presented by
THE NEWCOMEN SOCIETY IN NORTH AMERICA
in cooperation with
THE BUSINESS HISTORY REVIEW

¶ The Newcomen Society in North America, in cooperation with the Business History Review, announces a prize of $1,000 and scroll to be awarded in 1970 for the best book on the history of business published in the United States during the years 1967–1969.

¶ For the purposes of this award, “the history of business” will be interpreted in its broadest sense, including not only the history of firms or industries, but books tracing interactions of businessmen, analyses of business philosophy or behavior, and studies of the adjustment of businesses and businessmen to their economic, political, and social environments.

¶ Criteria for selection will include contribution to knowledge, depth of analysis, soundness of reasoning, clarity of style and organization, and general readability and format.

¶ The committee to select the recipient of the 1970 Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History is composed of: Professor James P. Baughman, Editor, Business History Review, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration; Mr. Stanley van den Heuvel, Trustee, The Newcomen Society in North America; and Professor Arthur M. Johnson, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, chairman.

¶ The 1970 Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History will be the third in a series of triennial prizes intended to encourage the study and improve the writing of business history in the United States and Canada.

EDITED BY PROFESSOR F. E. HYDE

This international journal is of interest to economists, economic historians and businessmen. Its articles deal not only with particular firms but with the wider relationships between business and economic life. The journal carries reviews on a broad range of topics included within the term business history. Some recently published articles are: S. B. Saul, The American Impact on British Industry; D. L. McLachlan, The Conference System since 1919; B. E. Supple, The Uses of Business History; E. Bennathan, German National Income 1850-1960; Olga Crisp, French Investment in Russian Joint Stock Companies 1894-1914; E. Robinson, The International Exchange of Men & Machines 1750-1800; F. E. Hyde, Economic Theory and Business History.

The journal is published twice yearly: subscription $5.00 (U.S.A. & Canada) 30s. (United Kingdom).

All enquiries concerning subscriptions and advertisements should be addressed to the publisher. Editorial enquiries should be sent to the Editor, Department of Economics, The University of Liverpool, Liverpool 7.

Newcomen Awards in Business History

Presented by

THE NEWCOMEN SOCIETY IN

in cooperation with

THE BUSINESS HISTORY REVIEW

¶ Two Newcomen Awards in Business History are offered annually for articles published in the Business History Review. The First Prize, of $250, is awarded the article judged, according to the rules outlined below, to be the best of the year. The Special Award, of $100, is for the best article by an author who is not more than 35 years of age and who has not published a book.

¶ Prize articles are selected by a panel of judges composed of a representative of The Newcomen Society and members of the Advisory Board of the Business History Review. No member of the Advisory Board or editorial staff shall be eligible for a prize, and articles so authorized will not be considered in the judging. Authors eligible for the Special Award shall also be eligible for the First Prize, but in no event shall both prizes be awarded for the same article. The Advisory Board reserves the right to withhold the Special Award in the event that eligible articles do not, in the Board's judgment, merit prize consideration. The awards program is administered by the editorial offices of the magazine.

¶ Criteria for selection include: originality, value, breadth, and interest of contribution, quality of research materials and methods, and quality of presentation.

Capitalism and Nationalism in Prewar Japan

THE IDEOLOGY OF THE BUSINESS ELITE, 1868-1941

Byron K. Marshall. With the Meiji Restoration and the subsequent drive to industrialize Japan, a new elite—the leaders of modern business—emerged to acquire considerable political as well as economic power. They asserted that they served the nation in the same manner as the traditional samurai elite, that their basic motivation was patriotic devotion and a willingness to sacrifice for the common good. Their attempt to reconcile this description of their motives with the institutional characteristics of private capitalism is the chief concern of this study. Among the subjects discussed are business views on government economic controls, the debate over labor legislation, and the influence of the West on the formation of business ideology. $5.75

The National Waterway

A HISTORY OF THE CHESAPEAKE AND DELAWARE CANAL, 1769-1965

by Ralph D. Gray. This first full-length study of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal traces the history of the important and unique waterway from its beginnings in the late 18th century to the modern seaway now under construction. It is primarily a history of struggle — financial, legal, political, and with the elements themselves — closely interwoven with the intriguing story of the “canal era” and transportation history generally in the United States. The author not only assesses the canal’s importance to both the area and the nation, but offers a fascinating account of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company from its original incorporation to its demise in 1919. Although the Company failed to earn even a modest profit for its stockholders, its lasting legacy is the seaway itself, which already carries more than 12,000,000 tons of commerce annually. Just published. 16 pages illustrations. 264 pages. $8.95

The Grain Trade in the Old Northwest

by John G. Clark. “. . . a very substantial book, in fact two books, one in the text and one in the footnotes, an encyclopedia on the development of grain as produced, transported, and marketed from 1787 to the Civil War.” — Mid-America. “It is a pleasure to read economic history that does not shout a thesis, stridently innovate a methodology, or resort to jargon and that corrects previous errors and misconceptions . . . useful and persuasive. . .” — The American Historical Review. 1966. 336 pages. $7.50
