(English)

(Chinese 中文)

The International Association for Chinese Management Research (IACMR), founded in 2001, is a professional, academic organization to serve scholars, students, managers, and consultants who are interested in advancing knowledge about the management of organizations operating in the Chinese context.

The primary goal of the Association is to promote scholarly studies of the organization and management of firms by:

- Providing a forum for the exchange of ideas and experience among researchers about management research in the Chinese context.
- Facilitating international collaboration between management researchers around the globe.
- Promoting the development of management research capabilities IN and ON China.
- Publishing the journal Management and Organization Review (MOR), dedicated to the mission of the Association (MOR: <http://www.iacmr.org/MOR.htm>).

Regular activities of the IACMR include:

- Bi-annual international conference beginning with the Inaugural Conference in Beijing, China, June 17–20, 2004, and following with the second conference in Nanjing, China, on June 15–18, 2006, and the third conference in Guangzhou, China, on June 19–22, 2008.
- Business meeting at the same site as the Academy of Management meeting.
- Special lectures by distinguished professors and business leaders at the business meetings.
- Research seminars by leading Chinese and international scholars in China.
- Research methods workshops for Chinese scholars and doctoral students.
- Official journal Management and Organization Review, published by Wiley-Blackwell.

For detailed information about IACMR activities or membership, visit our website (www.iacmr.org or www.iacmr.org.cn) or contact us by email at iacmr@asu.edu (U.S.A.), iacmr@pku.edu.cn (Beijing) or by phone 1-480-965-4530 (U.S.A.), or 8610-6275-6701 (Beijing).
