

Cressida

Engraving published July 1888 by Sampson Low, Marston Street, London. Printed by J. P. Colver, London.

Edward J. Poynter

Poynter, Edward J., artist. Cressida. 1888. Folger ART File S528t5 no.51 (size M)

Edward Poynter was a famous 19th-century painter who became President of England's Royal Academy in 1896. Poynter produced depictions of many Biblical and mythological figures, including the source painting for this engraving of Cressida.

From an original in the Folger Shakespeare Library
Licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International License (CC BY-SA 4.0)